

What's New in the Shire of Wongan-Ballidu?

SHIRE STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Each week meet a member of our team!

Katrina Free - Customer Service Officer
Katrina recently moved to the Shire of Wongan-Ballidu with her husband Rod. Katrina has worked for the Shire since March and is based down at the CRC as a Customer Service Officer... a big change from her previous career as a nurse. Katrina is passionate about arts and crafts and was the brains behind the new Knit & Natter which is loved by all who attend.

Katrina is passionate about community and loves gardening and spending time down at the Community Gardens...we can't wait for her to share her first harvest!

Katrina once entered a competition with the Lions Club for Lions Miss Personality... her bubbly personality is definitely a winner!

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE

The Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development have organised a series of FMD and LSD (lumpy skin disease) preparedness information forums which will be held in regional WA during August to provide useful advice and guidance for livestock owners. The forums will:

- ensure livestock producers are aware of the disease signs and know what they should be doing to prepare and protect their stock.
- provide information on the risk mitigation measures that can be put in place at a farm level.
- provide information on response arrangements should we get a case of FMD or LSD in Australia.

Manjimup: Thurs 11 August, 2pm to 4pm
 Cunderdin: Wed 17 August, 2pm to 4pm
 Katanning: Fri 19 August, 2pm to 4pm
 Dandaragan: Tues 23 August, 2pm to 4pm

Visit DPIRD's website to register.
